

PILOT-COURSE OF INTRODUCTION OF SOCIAL FARMING

TRAINEES REPORT

1. Trainees opinion

The results of the final avaluation from the trainees is reported in the graphic below.

1.1. Correspondence to Expectations

- Knowledge of the reality of other countries;
- Need for a greater number of "Case Studies" at the international level.

1.2. Suggested improvements

- Deepening the theme "Social Marketing";
- Need to know the reality of other institutions;
- Need for greater practical sessions.

2. Coordenation of the Pilot Course

The coordenation receive only positive opinions, both from trainers and trainees.

3. Global Satisfaction

Course Duration	Nr. Trainees
Excessive	1
Enough	6
Not Enough	1

4. More useful topics considered

- Adaptation and Management of Agricultural Business for Social Agriculture;
- Practical componente with CERCICA clients;
- Sucesed cases in europe – contribution of international trainers.

5. Less useful topics considered

- Support for placement / job;
- Motivation Programs;
- Characterization, relationship and ways to act with persons with disabilities;
- Working group.

Support informations	Nr. Trainees
Easy to understand	6
Very helpful	2
Difficult technical language	0
Tiring	0
Less useful	0

6. Strong Points

- Importance of Social Intervention in Agriculture;
- Sharing ideas and experiences;
- Relationship between human learners, AGROBIO and CERCICA.

7. Weak Points

- Enlargement of the areas of intervention of Social Farming beyond the mentally handicapped;
- More practical cases, especially in Portugal.

8. Possible continuation work between trainees

Possible continuation work between trainees	Nr.
Yes	6
No	2

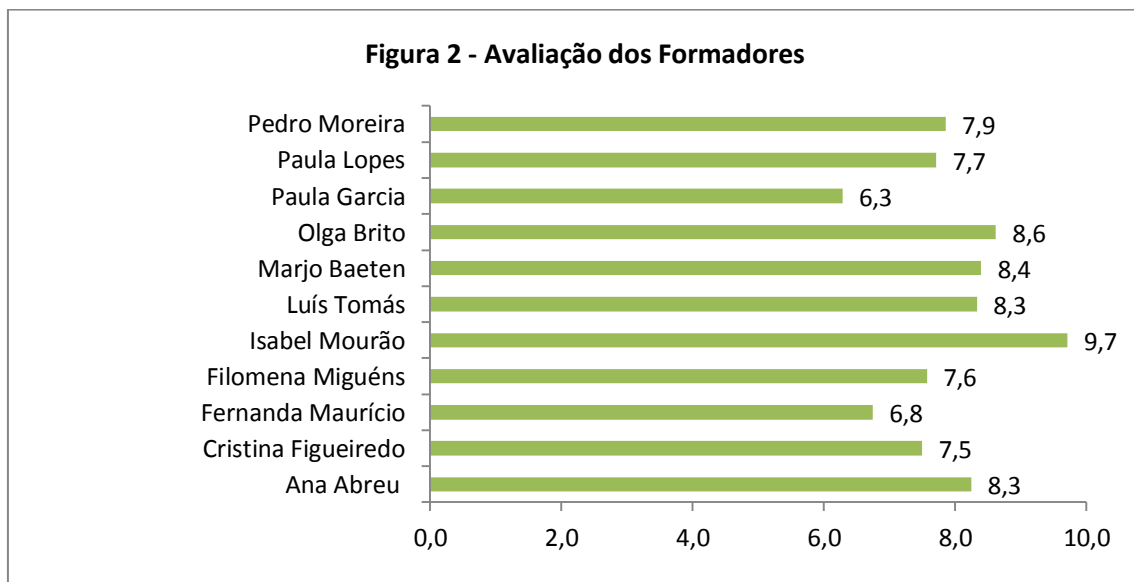

- Sharing of information (create a blog);
- Harnessing the complementarity of different areas of academic trainees;
- Conditioning of expressions for geographical reasons.

9. Future actions suggested

- Good practice in Social Farming;
- Business planing in Social Farming;
- Organic Farming associated to Social Farming.

10. Evaluation of Trainers by Trainees

The trainers obtained good and very good evaluation by the trainees:

Agrobio

Paula Rodrigues

